The Canadian Council of Professional Certification was established by Federal Charter in 1975.

The CCPC is the only body in Canada to certify registrants in multiple professional disciplines and has the authority to create certification programs.

The CCPC also accredits courses or curricula taught at career related educational institutions.

As a certifying and accrediting body, the CCPC is recognized for setting and maintaining high standards, professionalism and quality assurance.

Accredited courses are listed on our website.

COURSE ACCREDITATION

Business Managers Course

In today's business world, it is imperative that senior managers and top executives be decisive in providing quality assured training for their personnel in business management positions.

CCPC GLOBAL™ can provide this vital service to you by way of Course Accreditation. For in-house or other venues, CCPC GLOBAL™ will provide independent audit with an on-site visit to evaluate the course's curriculum.

An in-house course will gain credibility when the course is accredited by an independent professional body. The course will be aligned with accepted business practices in the industry adding further credibility.
